A Day with St. John Chrysostom

Getting to Know our Beloved St. John Chrysostom Better
Sharing Wisdom from St. John Chrysostom regarding Selected
Realms of Christian Living

Saturday, March 30th - 10am-3pm

Holy Annunciation Orthodox Church, 1228 2nd Ave, Berwick, PA

Our featured speaker:

Dr. David C. Ford

Dr. David C. Ford was raised in Wilmington, Delaware, and educated at Colgate University (BA in History), Oral Roberts University (Master of Divinity), and Drew University (Ph.D. in Church History and Historical Theology). He's in his 35th year of teaching Church History at St. Tikhon's Orthodox Theological Seminary.

Dr. David has devoted almost 40 years to the study of St. John Chrysostom's life and writings, some of which he has translated from the original Greek into contemporary English. These translations are presented in St. John Chrysostom: Letters to Olympia; Sing to Your Soul, a three-volume set giving selected passages on about 60 different themes relating to the Christian life; and Nine Sermons from the Life of St. John Chrysostom. Many passages by Chrysostom, especially regarding marriage, are given in Dr. David's Women and Men in the Early Church: The Vision of St. John Chrysostom, which is a revised and expanded version of his doctoral dissertation.

This event is open to everyone in our diocese and beyond. There is no charge and a Lenten lunch will be provided.
